

Inter-American
Committee on Ports

April 2015

E-Bulletin

CIP Associate Members

Issue #8

International Association of Dredging Companies (IADC)

IADC will hold an International Seminar on Dredging and Reclamation, June 22-26, at UNESCO-IHE, Delft, Netherlands, for (future) decision makers and their advisors in governments, port and harbor authorities, off-shore companies and other organizations that have to execute dredging projects. The five-day seminar aims at providing a broad understanding of the general requirements of a dredging project and, in addition to basic dredging methods, new equipment and state-of-the-art techniques are explained. For more information and registration, click here.

North American Marine Environment Protection Association

NAMEPA

2014 Lloyd's List Awards ENVIRONMENT AWARD WINNER

SEMINAR SERIES

Environmental Intelligence in Maritime

May 21, 2015 National Press Club, Washington, DC

SAFETY AT SEA— NATIONAL MARITIME DAY & AMVER AWARDS DINNER

In celebration of National Maritime Day, on May 21 NAMEPA will host its "Safety at Sea" Seminar followed by its AMVER Awards Dinner in the National Press Club, in Washington D.C. The Seminar will bring both public and private sector leaders to discuss common safety issues, their impact on the global maritime industry, and the role of the ECDIS. It will be followed by the evening event celebrating the contributions of merchant ships volunteering as part of maritime emergency responses. For more information and to register, click here.

American Association of Port Authorities (AAPA)

From June 16-18, AAPA will host its 2015 Commissioners Seminar in Halifax, Nova Scotia. In attendance will be Kurt Nagle, President & CEO, followed by panels on assessing port service performance, identifying customer demographics and demand, as well as navigating legal and political policy issues related to ports. The seminar will also include a 3 to 5 year outlook for the entire hemispheric container shipping industry. Online registration and the conference agenda can be found here.

Cruise Line International Association (CLIA)

On April 23, CLIA honored its candidates for the 2015 Cruise Industry Hall of Fame Inductees during the 11th Annual CLIA 'cruise3sixty' conference held in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. The inductees were recognized for their effective marketing practices, innovative sales organization, and expansion of the cruise tourism market. For further information on each inductee and their initiatives, click here.

Interested in becoming an Associate Member of the CIP? Click here for further information on the benefits of joining, opportunities for collaboration and the formal application procedures or contact the CIP Secretariat!

Organization of American States