CIP- ASA Workshop on Marine Salvage, Firefighting, and Environmental Response and Casualty Management.

The Secretariat of the Inter-American Committee on Ports (S/CIP) of the Organization of American States (OAS) in partnership with the American Salvage Association (ASA) will be holding a workshop on Marine Salvage, Firefighting, and Environmental Response and Casualty Management directed to senior Port Authority officials and ASA members from the 35 countries of the Americas. The workshop will be held in Miami, Florida, on June 13th -15th, 2016. The following activities will be held in the program:

- Experts from the salvage, wreck removal, marine firefighting and environmental response communities will present best practices, case studies and lessons learned over a three day event.
- Effective casualty management will be highlighted, including from government and port authority perspectives.
- Legal issues will be discussed including salvage law, wreck removal issues, and the impact of various international conventions.

Attendees will be invited to participate on panel sessions to share their own lessons learned. The workshop is expected to be a good networking and information sharing opportunity. The S/CIP and ASA are pleased to partner in this event that will take place in Miami, Florida, from June 13th - 15th, 2016. For further information please contact CIP Secretariat.
