About the CIP

The Inter-American Committee on Ports (CIP) is the only permanent forum that brings together the National Port Authorities of the 35 member countries of the Organization of American States (OAS) with leaders of the maritime-port industry.

The CIP promotes:
- Development of a competitive, secure, sustainable and inclusive port sector;
- Policy dialogue;
- Strengthening of institutional capacities *;
- Technical assistance; and
- Private sector cooperation.

* Through its Scholarship and Training Program, which includes certified courses, seminars, workshops and hemispheric conferences. These activities are carried out in collaboration with CIP Members, Associate Members and Strategic Partners.
 All Technical Advisory Groups (TAGs) include private sector representation.
CIP Community

The growing CIP community has close to 100 members from leading public and private entities from the maritime and port industry of the Americas.
