

MAJOR CHALLENGES FOR PORT DEVELOPMENT

Date: March 29, 2022

Time: 11:00 AM EST (Washington DC)

This Webinar organized by the Secretariat of the Inter-American Committee on Ports (S/CIP) and the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) of the United Nations (UN) and sponsored by the ISPS Mexico International Network, will address several of the most important challenges for port development.

In a hybrid presentation-conversation format, the Webinar will bring together the ECLAC, the General Coordination of Ports and Merchant Marine of the Mexican Secretariat of the Navy (SEMAR), and the Panama Maritime Authority (AMP), who will share their different views on how to implement effective policies to stimulate port development in key areas such as digitalization, infrastructure, climate change, and local and national governance issues.

Agenda

11.00 – 11.15 Opening

Jorge Durán, Chief of the Secretariat, Inter-American Committee on Ports (CIP)
Cap. Carlos Scarpín, Secretary, ISPS Mexico International Network

11.15 – 11.35 Overview of challenges for integrated port development

Ricardo Sánchez, Senior Officer of Economic Affairs, International Trade and Integration Division, ECLAC

11.35 – 12.15 Experiences of National Port Authorities

11.35 – 11.55 Cap. Alt. Ana Laura López Bautista, Coordinator General for Ports and Merchant Marine, SEMAR

11.55 – 12.15 Elvia Bustavino, Secretary General, Panama Maritime Authority (AMP)

12.15 – 12.40 Discussion

Moderated by Ricardo Sánchez, ECLAC

12.40 – 12.45 Closure

Jorge Durán, Chief of the Secretariat, CIP
Cap. Carlos Scarpín, Secretary, ISPS Mexico International Network

