

FEATURING:

Webinar on Closing the Gap: Gender Equality for Port Competitiveness

Date: Thursday, March 16, 2022

Time: 11:00 AM EDT (10:00 AM CST)

The Webinar organized by the Secretariat of the Organization of American States (OAS) Inter-American Committee on Ports (CIP) will address the importance of gender equality in the port and maritime sectors and its advancement towards more inclusivity. Representatives from CIP Associate Members Tropical Shipping, the Woman in Maritime Association Caribbean (WiMAC) and HudsonAnalytix, will present different perspectives on how closing the gender gap and women empowerment is a core and common effort that will boost the development and progress of the sector. The presentations will be followed by a Q&A session.

Agenda

11:00 – 11:10 Opening Remarks

Jorge Durán, Chief of the Secretariat, OAS - CIP

11:10 – 11:15 Introduction of panelists

Mona Swoboda, Program Manager, OAS - CIP

11:15 – 11:30

Jennifer Nugent-Hill, Director, Governmental and Community Affairs, Tropical Shipping

11:30 – 11:45

Dr. Evette Johnson, Vice President Women and Development, WiMAC

11:45 – 12:00

Cynthia Hudson, CEO and founder, HudsonAnalytix

12:00 – 12:20

Q&A Session

12:20 – 12:25

Closing Remarks

Presented by CIP Strategic Partner:

